THE DRESSAGE COACHES

Paula Price is an EA Level 3 Dressage Coach, B.H.S. Assistant Instructor, B Level Dressage Judge and has been a member of State teams for many years, including being a past member of the Australian Elite Squad and long listed for the Beijing Olympics. Paula caters to all levels of rider beginners to advanced, children and adults (Normally $90). Grant subsidised fee: EA member or PRARG member who is EA member $65, PRARG members/no EA M'ship) $70

Kristy Battista is an FEI dressage rider and EA dressage coach. Whether it's success in the ring or achieving goals at home she's there to help guide you. She has ridden and trained a variety of horses, either her own or clients, and whether lazy, spooky or sensitive, is able to draw on her experiences. Her training and teaching style comes from a sympathetic and kind approach, suited from nervous and beginner riders through to those seeking to progress through to FEI. (Normally $70) EA Member or PRARG Member who is EA Member $45 /PRARG Member (no EA M'Ship) $50

Jacqui Huppert is a Grand Prix (GP) Rider, NCAS Level 2 Specialist Dressage Coach, 'A' level GP and Young Horse Dressage judge and Judge Mentor. Jacqui has been a member of the EQ State Dressage Squad on QEB Jinglebell Swing, QEB King of Swing and QEB Bolero and now competing successfully on Cognac Diamond. Jacqui concentrates on the rider's position and effectiveness of the aids to maximise the potential of the horse/ rider combination. Jacqui believes in creating suppleness and elasticity in both horse and rider to improve the fluidity of the combination and their ability to ride in harmony together. (Normally $90) Grant subsidised fee: EA member or PRARG member who is EA member $65, PRARG members/no EA M'ship) $70
